EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: On line 3 of paragraph [0021], "rage" has been changed to -range--.

2. Claims 11 to 29 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: A high strength steel sheet having a defined composition which is free of vanadium and contains carbon in solution at 47 to 83% of the total carbon content and satisfies  $(Nb/93)/(C/12) = 0.2$  to  $<0.5$ ; and steel microstructure contains a ferrite phase and a martensite phase at area ratio of about 50% or more and about 1% or more, respectively with a grain size of 8  $\mu m$  or less; and its method of making, as recited by claims 11 to 29, is not taught or fairly suggested by the art of record for the reasons stated in Applicant's remarks filed September 14, 2009, October 13, 2009 and November 24, 2009.

4. Claims 11 to 29 patentably define over applied reference, Japanese patent 2002-226941. The prior art steel requires 0.1 to 0.5% vanadium and forms precipitated vanadium carbide in the hot rolled steel which severely increases the deformation resistance in subsequent hot rolling steps and minimizes the amount of carbon in solid solution state. In contrast, Applicant's steel is free of vanadium and contains niobium in controlled amounts to form niobium carbide such that carbon remaining in solution is 47 to 83% of the total C content to obtain high drawability and tensile strength without using expensive or excessive alloy elements, such as V, as demonstrated in Figure 1 of Applicant's Declaration filed September 14, 2009.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Deborah Yee whose telephone number is 571-272-1253. The examiner can normally be reached on monday-friday 6:00 am-2:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Roy King can be reached on 571-272-1244. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
